

Before & After School

The Arena Club's Before & After School program is a licensed program for children kindergarten—eighth grade. Our goal is to create a fun and safe environment everyday after school for children while parents are hard at work! The program includes homework time, snack time, organized field games on our year round indoor field, swimming year round, outdoor play on our fields and playground, center time in our classrooms, field trips on early dismissal days much more! The Arena Club vans pick up from many local schools and it also serves as a bus stop for pick up
